

Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is the Canadian Tutoring & Teaching Symposium?

The Canadian Tutoring & Teaching Symposium is a two-day participation-based symposium that will empower tutoring practitioners, teachers, program managers, instructional leaders, tutor mentors, academic coaches, and tutor business owners. In the symposium, they can gain different outlooks on contemporary issues in both tutoring and teaching, as well as develop new ideas to take their practice to the Nth Level. Speakers and participants get to network and share in an intimate and interactive setting celebrating personal and business growth.

2. How did I get the invitation to be part of this conference?

Our Tutoring Conference team is currently searching for tutoring practitioners, teachers, program managers, instructional leaders, tutor mentors, academic coaches, and tutor business owners who are qualified to speak and/or participate in the conference. We may have acquired your email or mailing address from your company website, facebook account, or business flyers or posters.

3. Why would I want to be part of the Canadian Tutoring & Teaching Symposium?

By attending the symposium, you get to present and listen to expert keynotes and case study sessions designed around specific, ACTIONABLE topics about tutoring and teaching. You also get 30 Continuing Professional Education (CPE) Hours, membership to our Tutoring & Teaching Community and membership to our Tutoring & Teaching Group. As a speaker, you will be receiving a certificate as a National Speaker at Our Tutoring and Teaching Canadian Symposium. You will also get an opportunity to have your case studies published in a reputable tutoring and teaching journal. Moreover, you will have the opportunity to promote your affiliated practice, serve as a vendor to showcase your products and services and have a discounted opportunity to publish your book for your clients. Lastly, you will get to meet a number of amazing people in the tutoring and education field who will share their knowledge and experiences to you!

4. Do I have to be a speaker to join the conference?

If you do not wish to be a speaker, you can come as a participant. You will still have to pay the registration fee. By being a participant, you get 30 units of Continuing Professional Education (CPE) hours, membership to our Tutoring & Teaching Community and membership to our Tutoring & Teaching Group. You will also get to meet a number of amazing people in the tutoring and education field who will share their knowledge and experiences to you!

5. How much is the registration fee?

The regular registration fee is $397. However, you can still catch the early bird registration for only $297. The last day for the early bird registration is February 16, 2018.

6. Do I have to stay at the hotel where the conference is?

You are responsible for your own travel and hotel arrangements. You do not have to stay at the conference venue which is the Holiday Inn Suites – Downtown Toronto.

7. What time does the symposium start and end on both days?

On both days, the conference will begin with breakfast at 8:30 AM. Lunch and snacks will also be served. It is expected to end at 4:30 PM for both days. We will be updating the agenda once we get closer to the conference and have all of the proposals in.

8. How long should my presentation be?

Each speaker will be given 30 minutes for their presentation. There will be time allotted for questions after a set of 3 sessions.

9. How do I sign up?

You can sign up on the conference website www.canadatutoringconference.com .

10. Who is the organizer of this conference?

This conference is organized by iGlobal Educational Services, a quality professional development and educational publishing firm who offers both credit and non-credit courses to fulfill continuing education requirements. The conference is sponsored by The Tutor Outreach Group. The Tutor Outreach Group is a professional organization for tutors, teachers, college students, and other small business professionals who want to:

- Start either a home-based tutoring business or tutoring company;
- Get clients to grow their tutoring business;
- Improve their tutoring repertoire;
- Gain insight into leading and hiring for a learning organization;
- Strategically grow their tutoring business based upon their own life purpose.

This conference is a joint venture between The Tutor Outreach Group and iGlobal Educational Services to provide its members quality professional development opportunities.